RACIAL MATTER

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated July 25, 1967, under the above second caption, reflecting a "town meeting" on July 24, 1967, at the Senate Theatre, 3128 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The purpose of the meeting was to obtain funds to aid the indigent Negroes in the Mississippi Counties of Bolivar, Hinds, Rankin, Sunflower, and Tallahatchie. The Director of this program is Edward L. "Fats" Crawford, who is the self-proclaimed leader of the Chicago Chapter of Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc. (DDJ). At this program Cassius Clay, an admitted member of the Nation of Islam (NOI), was a speaker. There were several Negro, Mississippi political candidates introduced at this time, including Frank Davis of Bolivar County, Mississippi.

A characterization of the DDJ and NOI is attached as an appendix hereto.

On August 2, 1967, the Jackson Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), advised that a group of Chicago DDJ members arrived in Cleveland, Mississippi, on July 29, 1967, and resided with [REDACTED] civil rights worker at Cleveland, Mississippi.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 5, 1967, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

TO PROTEST ALLEGED RESULTS
SEPTEMBER 2, 3, 1967
RACIAL MATTERS

On September 2, 1967, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of a march of approximately 500 Negroes sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in Woodville, Mississippi, at 10:00 a.m. on that date.

James Joliffe, President, Wilkinson County Chapter, NAACP, and Anselm Joseph Finch, a candidate for Board of Education who was recently defeated in the recent Democratic Primary Election, gave speeches. Joliffe advised that the election was stolen from them and that they would begin a boycott of all white merchants in Wilkinson County, Mississippi, until they received another election.

[REDACTED] continued that Joliffe had a second march of approximately 210 Negroes in Gentreville, Mississippi, at 11:00 a.m. on that date. Joliffe made a speech in which he advised the people of the boycott. [REDACTED] also said that Joliffe stated, "If any of you go into these sold themselves out to the white people."

[REDACTED]

On September 3, 1967, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that the general racial situation in Mississippi County was discussed with no definite conclusion being reached. [REDACTED] advised that he suggested to the Governor's representative that a law be enacted which would make illegal the possession of weapons by the Bureau for Defense and Justice, a militant Negro organization. The Governor's representative informed [REDACTED] that this proposition would be forwarded to the Governor for consideration.

PLACARDS SPONSORED BY NAACP AT
WOODVILLE AND CLARKSVILLE, MISSISSIPPI
TO PROTEST ELECTION RESULTS
SEPTEMBER 2, 4, 1967

On September 4, 1967, [REDACTED] advised that at 10:00 a.m. on that date, approximately 200 Negroes attempted to march from downtown Woodville, Mississippi, to the Wilkinson County Training Center, the Negro high school, in protest of several Negro teachers who allegedly backed white candidates in the recent second Democratic Primary Election. The march was stopped by approximately forty-five MHP officers to prevent interference with the school program which began on that date.

Three members of the Deacons for Defense and Justice, a militant Negro organization, were arrested for illegal possession of weapons and released on their own recognizance.

Luther Torman, District Attorney, Southwestern District of Mississippi, was present and advised that it is illegal to bear arms when the purpose is to put the law in the hands of private citizens. He has given the NAACP authority to disarm all members of the Citizens for Defense and Justice.

On May 3, 1965, a source advised that on June 30, 1964, a group of young people who attended the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) met in Chicago and adopted a statement of purpose and constitution forming the DCC as an affiliate of the national DCA.

A second source advised on May 1, 1967, that DCA chartered clubs in the Chicago area are the West Side DCC and the North Side DCC, neither of which currently maintain a headquarters. There is no central headquarters for the DCC and there are no unchartered clubs in this area.

The second source advised that the majority of DCC members are also members of the CP.

During the past year DCC activity has been almost nonexistent.

14 of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national function-15 aries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in 16 motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-17 oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful 18 transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be 19 reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this 20 new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

21
22 A second source has advised that the founding convention 23 for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 24 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time
25 the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted.
26 Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States
27 attended this convention.

28
29 The second source advised on May 1, 1967, that the 30 current officers of the DCA, as well as all members of the DCA 31 National Executive Committee, are members of the CP and that the 32 CP, USA furnishes the major financial support for the DCA national 33 office.

34
35 The second source advised that in September, 1966,
36 FRANKLIN ALEXANDER, DCA National Chairman, stated that the DCA 37 is now in fact a functioning young communist league. Also in 38 September, 1966, MIKE ZAGARELL, CP, USA Youth Director, stated 39 that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to 40 build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base 41 through the DCA.

42
43 The second source advised that in September, 1966, DANIEL
44 RUBIN, CP, USA National Organizational Secretary, stated the Party
45 believes the DCA should have a working class outlook and be a mass 46 organization favorable to socialism, socialist countries and 47 Marxism, and in April, 1967, GUS HALL, CP, USA General Secretary, 48 indicated that the DCA primary emphasis should be on developing 49 mass resistance to the draft.

A P P E N D I XDEACONS OF DEFENSE AND JUSTICE, INC. (DDJ)

A confidential source advised on September 5, 1967, the Deacons of Defense and Justice (DDJ) is a Negro organization formed at Jonesboro, Louisiana, in late 1964. In March of 1965 the organization was incorporated in the State of Louisiana as an organization active in Louisiana. No papers are known to have been filed with any other state although various chapters have been formed in localities outside of Louisiana. The original purpose of the organization was to provide protection for Negro marchers active in civil rights demonstrations and activities, particularly in Jonesboro, Louisiana. Other chapters were later formed, the most active of which has been at Bogalusa, Louisiana.

EARNEST THOMAS severed his connection with the Jonesboro Chapter and has since traveled extensively throughout the United States representing himself as the Northern Regional Vice President of the DDJ. He has set up chapters in Chicago and other major cities, all of which are independent chapters not chartered by the official DDJ headquarters in Jonesboro. THOMAS is considered militant in his thinking and expresses great hatred for the white race.

Re New Orleans airtel to Bureau, 8/4/67.

Enclosed herewith to the Columbia Office is one copy of resairtel and the enclosure, an airtel from the Bureau dated 8/1/67.

A review of the files of the Savannah Office failed to indicate any activity or known groups associated with the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc., or the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

It was noted, however, that at the time the Columbia Office was opened, some correspondence relating to the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc., was transferred from Savannah to the Columbia Office, Columbia file 157-123. There was some reference in the remaining serials in the Savannah file to an organization or group known as "Saints of St. George in South Carolina", possibly affiliated with the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc.

In view of the above, the Columbia Office is requested to review its files for any indication of activity in that division on the part of the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc., and RAM and if any such activity, will contact logical sources in accordance with the request of the New Orleans Office in resairtel.

SUBJECT: PROPOSED MONOGRAPHS ON BLACK EXTREMIST ORGANIZATIONS
RESEARCH-SATELLITE MATTER

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED

DATE 8-4-8 BY SP/SLH/

This is to recommend that monographs be prepared on several black extremist organizations.

All evidence points to continuing racial strife and violence in this country in the foreseeable future. A significant factor in this turmoil is the gospel of black nationalism or black power that is spreading throughout the Negro ghettos of our large cities.

In August, 1967, the Research-Satellite Section disseminated a monograph which had been prepared on the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the black extremist organization with which the notorious Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown are affiliated. This document was enthusiastically received by top Government officials and other interested Government agencies.

We are currently preparing a monograph on the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) which is a fanatical, all-Negro hate group that follows the Red Chinese Marxist-Leninist line and envisions a black revolution that will seize power in the United States.

There are additional black extremist organizations on the American scene on which it is believed studies should also be prepared. Among these are several organizations espousing the concept of black power, which include the following:

Deacons of Defense and Justice is a gun-carrying black vigilante group formed in Bogalusa, Louisiana, ostensibly for defensive purposes in retaliation for Klan acts against Negroes. It has a membership of several hundred located primarily in Louisiana communities, but, has contemplated forming units in Chicago and Washington.

It is noted that the sponsoring group announced that the purpose of bringing Brown to Minneapolis would be to assist in the formation of a Minneapolis unit of the Deacons for Defense and Justice (DDJ). At the present time no information has been developed indicating that these individuals have, in fact, been successful in establishing a chapter of the DDJ; however, Minneapolis is closely following this matter to obtain complete information concerning the possible formation of such a group and the Bureau and interested offices will be kept advised.

H. RAP BROWN

Reference is made to Minneapolis communication dated November 3, 1967 reporting that H. Rap Brown, Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) was scheduled to appear as a speaker in Minneapolis, Minnesota on November 18, 1967.

Local news media reported on November 15, 1967 that Matthew Eubanks, identified in the article as a member of the group sponsoring the appearance of Brown, announced that Brown's appearance had been cancelled because Brown's trial had been postponed in United States District Court in New York, New York, which restricts Brown's movement to the areas of New York or Atlanta, Georgia, or he must forfeit $15,000 bail. Eubanks announced that SNCC leaders had told him they believed the trial would be over when they committed Brown to speak in Minneapolis and the prospect of further delays means that "Brown is being held a political prisoner."

Matthew Eubanks is employed by the Citizens Community Centers as a community neighborhood worker.

The Citizens Community Centers are a Hennepin County community action program founded under Title IV of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, and operate four centers in Hennepin County, supplying legal, financial, counseling, and social services for poor people in their own neighborhoods.

[REDACTED] b1
[REDACTED] that the main reason for the cancellation of Brown's appearance in Minneapolis was that the local group sponsoring Brown's appearance had been unable to raise a fee of $1,000, which was required by Brown to make the appearance.

[REDACTED] b1
[REDACTED] that during the first part of November Eubanks and others sponsoring Brown's appearance decided that they would be unable to raise the $1,000 fee for Brown through a fund drive. However, they hoped to have sufficient ticket sales to cover the necessary expenses. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] did not believe these sales had been such as to raise the required money.

The above sources each advised that at this time there is no definite plan to again schedule Brown as a speaker in the Minneapolis area.

It is noted that [REDACTED] of the Board of Education confidentially advised that it is Board policy to make Board of Education space available on a rental basis to organizations and after consulting their attorney see no alternative but to allow BROWN to appear at Marshall High School. He further noted that it was believed that to deny BROWN use of this space would serve to act as a vehicle for the militant Negro community.

Minneapolis is continuing liason with local authorities and sources to further clarify the details concerning BROWN's scheduled appearance and the Bureau will be kept advised of all pertinent developments.

For the information of the Bureau, a separate communication is being submitted concerning the National Student Association Conference at the University of Minnesota and the related protests which are anticipated.

APPEARANCE OF H. RAP BROWN, CHAIRMAN, STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC), MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA
NOVEMBER 18, 1967
RACIAL MATTERS

News articles appearing in local Minneapolis, Minnesota daily papers in October, 1967, announced the scheduled appearance of H. Rap Brown, chairman of SNCC, on November 18, 1967.

The October 18, 1967, edition of the "Minneapolis Tribune," a daily newspaper, in an article captioned, "H. Rap Brown Scheduled to Speak in City," described him as the "militant chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee." According to the article, Brown agreed to come to Minneapolis, Minnesota, at the request of a committee organizing a Minneapolis chapter of the Deacons for Defense and Justice (DDJ), "an armed Negro force in the South."

News articles identify the organizers of this appearance as Matthew Fobanks, 1001 Russell Avenue North, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Dr. Herman Bellard, 1214 12th Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The October 18, 1967, article reported Brown is free on $15,000 bond in New York on a federal charge of illegally transporting a firearm across state lines and is free under another $15,000 bond pending an appeal to the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals of an order extraditing him to Maryland for trial on charges of "inciting to arson and riot."

The October 20, 1967, edition of "Minneapolis Tribune" on page eight, announced advance ticket sales for the November 18, 1967 appearance of Brown would be sold through "The Way" at $2.50 each. According to the article, Brown would address a racially mixed audience, and would also speak to an all-Negro audience during his two-day visit.

APPEARANCE OF H. RAP BROWN

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

As of November 3, 1967, no definite commitments have been made concerning Brown's appearance in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Local law enforcement authorities are in receipt of complaints concerning the appearance of H. Rap Brown in the Twin Cities area. These complaints originate from both Negro and Caucasian residents and particularly from those residents in the near North Side area of Minneapolis.

It is noted that Minneapolis is one of 14 cities chosen for an experiment using funds of various Federal agencies under the "Pilot City" plan to provide a variety of social services for a segment of the community which includes approximately 52,000 residents of the near North Side in Minneapolis, Minnesota. In recent weeks, this segment of the community has been subject to extensive publicity in connection with an election of a board of directors for Pilot City held on October 30, 1967. On October 31, 1967, it was announced that Federal funds were not being provided for this Pilot City program by Congress and at the present time feelings in the community are running extremely high over failure to appropriate these funds.

In connection with the appearance of H. Rap Brown in Minneapolis, Minnesota, information has been received that the following campus organizations at the University of Minnesota have been solicited to participate as co-sponsors of this appearance at Marshall High School:

Young Socialist Alliance (YSA)

Campus Committee to End the War
in Vietnam (CCEWV)

Characterizations of the YSA and the CCEWV are contained in the appendix attached hereto.

The National Student Association (NSA) has scheduled a three-day conference on "student power" November 17-19, 1967, on the University of Minnesota campus, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and approximately 400 students are expected to attend.

MINNESOTA COMMITTEE TO END THE WAR IN VIETNAM also known as
Campus Committee to End the War in Vietnam

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 8, 1965, that the Minnesota Committee to End the War in Vietnam (MCEWV) had its first meeting on April 17, 1965, the Sunday following the return of the Minnesota delegation from the peace march in Washington, D. C. There appeared to be no real organization of this newly formed group from April until July, 1965, when the local Socialist Workers Party (SWP) decided to really organize this group and take control.

The MCEWV publishes a regular newsletter entitled "Vietnam Crisis."

The July 7, 1965, issue of the MCEWV newsletter states that the MCEWV is opposed to the present war in Southeast Asia. Members of the group are basically united on the goal of ending United States military involvement. Membership is open to whomever shares concern in changing this aspect of the present United States policy.

The August 16, 1965, issue of the newsletter stated that the local organization voted to affiliate with the National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Vietnam.

The same source, on May 29, 1967, advised that members of the local SWP continued to control policies of the MCEWV until October, 1966.

In October, 1966, at an annual election of officers, the anti-Trotsky elements were successful in removing all SWP members from office in the MCEWV. In January and February, 1967, the newly elected officers resigned because of pressure by Trotsky elements and formed a new group known as the Campus Committee to End the War in Vietnam. This new group was to be confined to students and faculty members of the University of Minnesota and to be free of Trotsky influence.

In recent months, the local SWP members have been successful in joining and controlling, to a great extent, the actions of this new campus group. The SWP is again in complete control of the MCEWV. Although both groups operate

APPENDIXYOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

On March 10, 1967, a source advised that the YSA was formed during 1957 by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The source further advised that the YSA has recently become more open about admitting that it is the youth group of the SWP and that an SWP representative has publicly stated that the YSA is the SWP's youth group.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Rooms 532-536, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.
